Depositing the Award amounts in Courts in land acquisition cases.

CIRCULAR

. RDH 11 LQM 59, DATED BANGALORE, THE 11TH AUGUST 1959
(SHRAVANA 20, SAKA ERA 1881).

following instructions for the guidance of officers dealing with land acquies are issued regarding the need for depositing award amounts in Courts ely to prevent the liability of Government for payment of accumulated

Under the scheme of the Land Acquisition Act, once the award is declared ession is taken, it is necessary to make payment of the award amount. 8 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, provides for payment of interest on d amount from the date on which the possession of the land is taken. e, in all cases, where possession is taken before the award is passed, it is that the amount is paid or deposited immediately after the award, t accumulation of interest.

Normally, four types of cases arise in matters where awards are passed in quisition cases and payments are required to be made by Government behalf of some departments or local bodies. Such cases are—

(1) Where an award is passed by the Land Acquisition Officer and the valuation is accepted by the owner of the land ;

(2) Where the award is not acceptable to Government ;

(3) Where the award is not acceptable to the owner of the land ;

(4) Where the title to the land is in dispute or the question of apportionment of the compensation is in dispute.

first category of cases does not present any difficulty, as the owner of the ots the award. In such cases payment should be made to the owner ng possession.
